There was a Zoom meeting of the Vestry of Saint Paul’s Episcopal Church, Chestnut Hill, on the above date at 7 p.m..

There were present Ruth Desiderio, Rector’s Warden, presiding; also Interim Rector Albert J. Ogle, Assistant Rector Daniel J. Kline, and Vestry members Tim Albert, Lisa Budd, Chip Butler, Steve Camp-Landis, Cheyenne DeMulder, Mark Duckett, Clark Groome, John Kimberly, George McNeely, Tabitha Oman, Steve Pearson, Kristen Poole, Louise Thompson, and Hugh Williamson.

The meeting was called to order at 7:07 p.m.

I. Interim Rector Albert Ogle opened the meeting with a prayer.

II. Rector’s Warden Ruth Desiderio read The Listening Hearts Guidelines.

III. The minutes of the February 24, 2020 Vestry meeting were approved unanimously.

IV. The minutes of the March 13, 2020 Conference Call were approved unanimously.

V. The proposed amendments to the parish bylaws were passed without dissent. The amended bylaws are attached.

VI. Accounting Warden Steve Camp-Landis reported that financially there was “nothing particularly extraordinary this month.” The Vestry-approved $200,000 transfer from endowment took place. He also noted that there were a few unexpected property costs due to the moving of the offices into the Rectory.

Steve was thanked for the monthly report and says he’ll continue to write them so that “as we move through the fiscal year we can keep a close watch on spending and revenues to make sure they’re in line with the budget. If we see things happening that are not expected, we can make adjustments as needed.”
VII. There was some discussion about continuing to pay the professional singers even if there are times for which they were contracted but are not needed. While the general feeling was that we should honor our original arrangements with them it was also decided to revisit this at the next Vestry meeting.

VIII. Prior to the meeting Hugh Williamson distributed the 2019 expense report for the Stookey Fund as required by the fund’s letter of agreement.

IX. Property Chairman Mark Duckett reported that they are still looking for the best way to examine the fleche. The property committee is getting costs from a couple of possibilities, one of which included building scaffolding, and should bring a recommendation to the Vestry very soon.

Mark also reported that we are on track to get all the design work done and projects to begin at the end of May. This could change because of the COVID-19 virus.

X. Stewardship Chairman George McNeely said that he and his nephew, Paul Diefenbach, are working to get the parish’s lists up to date. He says that they have found that our two major lists are basically in good shape. He said that they are trying to update the contact info on the 24 people whose parish surveys bounced back.

He suggested that the Vestry and the stewardship committee members review the latest directories to see if they find any errors.

George also noted that the parish needs to work on planned giving.

In a related matter, Kristen Poole said we should work to keep chorister families involved even after their kids are no longer singing. Dan Kline suggested we form a choristers alumni association. We want them to know they are still a valued part of the parish. Perhaps we could invite them back from time to time.

XI. Dan reported that the confirmation class has gone off to a good start, with 19 signed up. Parents are very supportive. The viral pandemic has interrupted the classes for now but overall this is a very positive program.

XII. Albert thanked those who made the Sunday online service on Facebook possible. It was a fine event and, with some minor sound problems, very well received by those who watched.
He also reported the following:

• Online worship will continue for as long as there are restrictions on the size of groups that can gather during the illness.

• St. Paul’s, he said, will likely enter a complete lockdown soon.

• Albert proposed that the Vestry, and perhaps some others, divide up the congregation and make calls to check in and see if they need anything. Virginia is preparing a list by Zip Code. He and Dan, he said, will call as many parishioners as possible this week and then the Vestry can begin making calls.

• Kristen noted that she, and perhaps others, may be so jammed with business or family obligations that they may find it difficult to make those calls. Albert agreed but urged all who could do so be in touch with as many parishioners as possible.

• The parish website has lots of problems and needs to be restructured. This will be worked on over the next several weeks.

• The diocese has offered to pay for the parishes’ Zoom usage.

This is going to be a tough time for the parish but Albert is sure that we can meet the challenges we’re facing.

XIII. Rector’s Warden Ruth Desiderio echoed Albert’s thanks to those responsible for the Sunday online service.

She also noted the following:

• The Nominating Committee is being chaired by Pam Bracey and includes Doug Anderson, Vestry rep Lisa Budd, and Madeline Schroth. Their only task is nominating a person to serve a three-year term as a representative to diocesan convention. Both Steve Camp-Landis and George McNeely have agreed to continue fulfilling the not-completed terms of Anibal Aponte-Boyd and Chuck Lower respectively. The committee needs to file its report with the secretary no later than April 15.
• There is a Parish Finance Education Group chaired by John Kimberly. The original plan to have the group meet with parishioners at meetings in late April and early May has had to be scrapped. Ruth and John will search for alternative ways of getting the financial info to the parish in a way that puts it into context.

• The financial information was to be delivered before the congregational conversations about the results of the parish survey. Those, too, need to be reformatted and set up to give the parish as much opportunity as possible to talk about the parish survey’s results.

• There were 211 surveys returned with about 300 written comments supplementing the responses to the multiple-choice questions. John Rollins is chairing the Survey Data Analysis Team that also includes Ruth, Janice Fiore, Denise Jones, Kathleen Karhnak-Glasby, John Kimberly, Sarah Latini, Carroll Sheppard, and Shana Stites. How this information will be shared with and feedback gotten from the parish members is still being figured out. It is hoped that the profile will be finished in May, perhaps before the May 17 Annual Meeting.

• If we’re still in a lockdown how do we do the Annual Meeting? This is, Ruth said, a very complicated time but she has faith that with our leadership we will come out of this stronger and more unified.

• Ruth is planning to write a letter to the parish this week. Kristen suggests that the probable timeline for the search be included with the understanding that in the current climate it may be altered going forward.

XIV. The changes to the Sunday morning schedule mentioned at the last Vestry meeting were discussed. The only significant change to what we’re doing now is to move the 10:30 service to 11 allowing for more music at the 9 o’clock service and giving adults attending that service the opportunity to attend the adult forum that would now begin at 9:45. It would also permit Sunday School teachers to attend church.

While there was a positive response to the idea, some felt that with all that’s going on now another change would be one too many and that the schedule should be left to the new rector to set.
Others thought that changes like these should be made before the new person is in place. More discussion is needed.

XV. Kristen wondered if St. Paul’s shouldn’t be doing something to help people suffering because of the cutbacks due to the CORVID-19 restrictions. Albert noted that we are working with Face to Face and The Whosoever Gospel Mission to get their ideas about what we can do. He also expressed concern about how the current crisis is affecting our parishioners. We need to be sensitive, all agreed, and continue to work on ways to help. The proposed calls to all the parishioners will be one way to find out what is needed.

XVI. The next regular meeting of the Vestry will be on Monday, April 20, 2020.

XVII. Following Dan Kline’s closing prayer, the meeting adjourned at 9:06 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Clark Groome
Secretary
